FLYING HORSE FARMS

Located near Mt. Gilead, Ohio, Flying Horse Farms is a provisional member of the Association of Hole in the Wall Camps, the world's largest family of camps for children with serious illnesses. Founded in 1988 by Paul Newman, the Association has collectively served more than 200,000 children from five continents and 45 countries. The mission of Flying Horse Farms is to enrich the lives of children with serious illnesses and their families by providing magical, transforming fun through year-round, medically-safe and cost-free camping experiences.
