PCA Club Racing

Mid-Ohio Region's Spring At The Carousel, its annual national PCA Club Race held at the Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course in Lexington, OH, is one of the most popular venues among the racers. The four day event features a Thursday-Friday Driver's Education and the Saturday-Sunday Club Race. A large number of Region volunteers, led by the Club Race Chair, contribute to this highly successful event.

I.R.A.C.

The Porsche Club Regions from Western Pennsylvania to Indiana have joined together and developed a competition autocross series known as IRAC (Inter Regional Autocross Championship). Each of the participating regions hosts at least one autocross event and, at the end of the autocross season, championship trophies are awarded to the top finishers in each class. Class trophies are awarded at each event as well.

OKTOBERFEST

This annual, multi-event weekend, started by Mid-Ohio Region and alternately hosted among the Ohio PCA Regions, featured a Friday night welcoming party, a Saturday Concours d'Elegance, a Road Rally and a banquet dinner and a Sunday autocross.
